Cedrus Investments Hosts Life ScienceS luncheon in Beijing on 7th November 2017

BEIJING, Oct. 31, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Cedrus Investments \("Cedrus"\), a global boutique investment firm, will host a life sciences luncheon on Tuesday, 7th November 2017 in Beijing at the Shangri-La China World Summit Wing Hotel. Mr. Randy Hice, Cedrus' Chief Technical Officer and Member of the Life Sciences Advisory Board, will be sharing his insights on two critical themes in biotechnology: "New Frontiers in Immunology R&D" and "Increasing Laboratory Productivity and Meeting FDA Compliance through Software".

Mr. Hice is recognized worldwide as a leading authority in laboratory informatics and the most published author in the world on topics of complex laboratory automation and workflow analysis. His recent positions included the CEO of Laboratory Expertise Center, Inc. and Manager of Global Strategy at Abbott Informatics, a division of Abbott Laboratories.

This is the second year that Cedrus will hold such life sciences luncheon series in China, after a successful kick-off in Shanghai last year which brought together leading institutional investors, venture capitalists, and company executives. Cedrus views it as a strategic program that bridges the Chinese life sciences community with the rest of the world by offering cutting-edge and professional opinions with far-reaching influences.

Cedrus' Chairman, Mr. Rani Jarkas said, "The goals of Cedrus holding such events are to share the latest, timely and strategic industry information, uncovering unique investment opportunities and bringing together industry leaders for networking. The feedback from participants of last year's luncheon was very positive, as the event provided elite investors with the information that helped them establish an in-depth and sophisticated way of thinking when making their investment decisions. Thus, Cedrus will keep on offering such opportunities in the future as long as they benefit our clients and investors alike."
